

2007 Call for Nominations

Celebrating National Women's History Month

Utah Women's Achievement Award

For generations, women in Utah have helped develop our rich history by excelling as leaders and mentors in all walks of life. In 1987, the month of March was designated by congress as National Women's history month. The Utah Commission for Women and Families is accepting nominations for women who have made a significant impact with young people aged 13 to 18. Women working in the following categories or programs may be nominated:

- Life challenges and self destructive behavior—bullying
- Substance abuse
- Mental illness—mood disorders—suicide
- Eating disorders
- Dating challenges and abuse
- Teen sexuality education—teen pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases

AWARDS:

- All nominees, their nominators and guests will be invited to attend the Salt Lake City Public Library on the evening of Thursday, March 29, 2007, to celebrate along with winners of the student essay contest (grades 7 through 12)
- Winners will receive their award during the ceremony

REQUIREMENTS:

- Nominee's name, address, city, zip code and phone number
- Nominee must be a resident of Utah
- Provide a one to three page summary explaining why the candidate is being nominated
- Include name of nominator and phone number
- Include the names and phone numbers of two non-related personal references on a separate page
- Nominations will not be accepted from members of the Utah Commission for Women and Families
- Submissions that are more than 4 pages total will not be accepted

DEADLINE:

Submit on or before February 15, 2007. Nominations will not be accepted after 5 PM.

Submit to RMILLS@utah.gov or mail or fax to:

DWS, Office of Work & Family Life, Utah Commission for Women and Families
Attention: Rochelle Mills
140 East 300 South
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
801-526-4349 Fax
801-526-4354 Questions

All submissions become the property of DWS, Utah Commission for Women and Families.